

Los Angeles County Child Abuse Prevention Councils

The Los Angeles Community Child Abuse Councils consist of 12 community-based councils throughout Los Angeles County. The mission of the Councils is to reduce the incidence of child abuse and neglect, and to educate the public about child abuse and family violence issues.

Action For Kids AV

The Action for Kids AV mission is to improve upon the safety and well-being of children and families at risk for child abuse and neglect by linking them to outreach, education, information and resource systems and to raise public awareness of child abuse issues.

Council on Child Abuse Prevention of San Fernando and Santa Clarita Valley (SPA 2)

Founded in 1977, the Council for Child Abuse Prevention of San Fernando & Santa Clarita Valleys is an inter-agency and community council dedicated to facilitating communication and problem solving related to child abuse. The goal of all projects and events is for families to develop the five Protective Factors to prevent child abuse and neglect in their homes.

Advocacy Council and Allies for Deaf Children (ACADC)

Current initiatives directly address the critical need for culturally appropriate communication in the home and mental health settings, ultimately helping to mitigate child abuse and strengthen support for this at-risk population. Whether you're Deaf/Hard of Hearing or a hearing ally passionate about supporting our cause, your involvement is invaluable!

Eastside Child Abuse Prevention Council (ECAPC)

Eastside Child Abuse Prevention Council is dedicated to uniting the SPA 3 community to prevent child abuse by raising awareness and providing Protective Factors. Join us to advance a collaborative effort of professionals and community members in safeguarding our children's well-being!

Asian and Pacific Islander Children Youth and Family Council (API-CYFC)

API-CYFC's goals since its inception has been to cultivate a network of professionals who will advocate for issues concerning Asian and Pacific Islander communities and support the development of child abuse prevention and treatment programs to meet the needs of Asian and Pacific Islander communities.

End Abuse Long Beach

EALB prides itself in creating, training, and leading a violence-free community to nurture personal and professional growth. Through their network, EALB distributes safety plans—not just documents, but tools for survival—discreetly and directly to those with the biggest impact: domestic violence shelters, social workers, and mental health professionals.

Los Angeles County Child Abuse Prevention Councils

Foothill Child Abuse and Family Violence Prevention Council

The mission of the Council is to bring together concerned individuals in the Foothill of the San Gabriel Mountains and surrounding areas to positively impact the service delivery system for abused and neglected children.

LGBTQ+ Council

Undergoing recent changes in leadership, the Council is redefining itself now! If you're interested in supporting children/youth and families in this resilient population from a prevention based interagency, community and advocacy perspective, join us!

LAC-Family, Children, Community Advisory Council (LAC-FCCAC)

LAC-FCCAC provides professionals with the education and skill sets to identify, assess, counsel, and prevent child abuse. It is our belief that every child should have the opportunity to reside in homes with understanding, and loving parents or care-givers without any family violence, which could interrupt their physical and emotional development. All LAC-FCCAC's conference trainings, community outreach, and collaborations are managed by volunteers.

San Gabriel Valley Child Abuse Prevention Council

The San Gabriel Valley CAPC co-hosts an Annual Information Fair & Festival for families raising children with disabilities and has done so for an incredible 30 years! This Festival connects parents who have children with disabilities and the professionals who work with them. This year 1500+ families, 100+ agencies and 100+ volunteers attended! If you'd like to help support families in eastern LA County with children with disabilities, contact us!

SPA 7 Child Abuse Prevention Council

The Council aims to unite the SPA 7 community to prevent child abuse by raising awareness and supporting the Protective Factors. Recent efforts include a focus on middle school-aged boys who are system-impacted or at-risk with mental health awareness education to build resilience. Join our professionals and community members to protect children's well-being!

The Westside Anti-Violence Alliance (WAVA)

WAVA is a cohort of organizations and individuals aimed at preventing various forms of violence on the westside of LA through education, collaboration, and advocacy with an emphasis on the intersectionality of domestic violence and child abuse. Recent projects have centered on art and economic mobility.
